CLEVELAND FRIENDS MOURN

MRS. NANCY POST WILLSON Charles J. Willson of Cleveland who has been passing a few with relatives in New London days with relatives in New London and Norwich, is expecting to leave today (Saturday) to visit relatives in Natick, Mass. Mr. Willson accompanied the body of his wife, Nancy Post Willson, to Norwich, for burial, following funeral services held on Monday afternoon from the Euclid Avenue Raptist church, in Cleveland. The church pastor, Rev. W. W. Bustard, officiated and paid a beautiful tribute to the life of Mrs. Willson, emphasizing the loss the church and its members would feel in parting with such a faithful and influential worker. Rev. Mr. Bustard was assisted by Rev. J. L. Cheney, assistant pastor of the church. During the services a personal friend, Miss Lou vices a personal friend, Miss Lou atty, sang two hymne sympatheti-y. There was a very large at-Beatty, sang two hymne sympathetically. There was a very large attendance, the church being filled with friends and acquaintances. Among the beautiful floral pieces from the several branches connected with the church were the following: wreath from the members, wreath from the Ladies' Aid society, spray from the Baraca and Philathea classes, spray from the Bible class of which Mrs. Willson was teacher, and a large spray from the Baraca and Philathea Union of the city of Cleveland, also several pieces from personal friends.
